

1. accredit	(v.) to officially recognize, accept, or approve of someone or something The agency was not ____ed by the Philippine Consulate to offer contracts to Filipinos abroad.	11. devalued	(v.) to reduce the rate at which money can be exchanged for foreign money Last year Mexico was forced to ____ the peso.
2. approximation	(n.) a guess of a number that is not exact but that is close Could you give me a rough _____ of how many people will be coming? What he said bore no _____ whatsoever to the truth (= was not at all like the truth).	12. devastate	(v.) to cause great damage or suffering to something or someone, or to violently destroy a place Waves of corporate downsizing have ____ed employee morale. The town was ____ed by a hurricane in 1928.
3. at one's disposal	available to be used by someone I would take you if I could, but I don't have a car _ my _____ this week. Having sold the house she had a large sum of money _ her _____ (= to spend as she wanted).	13. emergency evacuation	(n.) _____ is the urgent immediate egress or escape of people away from an area that contains an imminent threat, an ongoing threat or a hazard to lives or property.
4. attainable	(adj.) possible to achieve We must ensure that we do not set ourselves goals that are not _____.	14. evoke	(v.) to cause something to be remembered or expressed The smell of chalk always ____s memories of my school days.
5. confusion	(n.) a situation in which people do not understand what is happening, what they should do or who someone or something is There seems to be some _____ over who is actually giving the talk. To avoid _____, the twins never wore the same clothes.	15. faithfully	(adv.) in a loyal way or a way that can be trusted He served the family _____ for 40 years. She promised _____ (= made a firm promise) that she would never leave him.
6. considerate	(adj.) caring about and respectful of others He is always a kind and _____ host	16. fictitious	(adj.) invented and not true or not existing Characters in this novel are entirely _____. He registered at the hotel under a _____ name.
7. consultation	(n.) the process of discussing something with someone in order to get their advice or opinion about it After _____s with our accountants, we've decided how to cut costs within the company. He made the decision in _____ with his parents and teachers.	17. impair	(v.) to damage or weaken something so that it is less effective Lack of sleep ____ed her ability to think clearly.
8. cutback	(n.) a reduction in something, made in order to save money The closure of the Manchester printing factory is the company's biggest single _____ so far.	18. intake	(n.) the amount of a particular substance that is eaten or drunk during a particular time It says on the packet that four slices of this bread contains one half of your recommended daily _____ of fiber.
9. deflate	(v.) when an economy _____s or is ____ed, prices fall and there is a reduction in wages and government spending, and low levels of growth Some people are angry, arguing that the state has artificially ____ed housing values in the area.	19. in the vicinity of	the area immediately surrounding something; approximately An area of low pressure off the southeast coast will keep some rain showers _ _ _ _ _ the coastline. The club is believed to have paid _ _ _ _ _ €3 million for Domingo.
10. deliberately	(adv.) intentionally He did it _____ to annoy me.	20. leaky	(adj.) Something that is leaky has a hole or crack in it that allows liquid or gas to get through _____ pipes/ a _____ valve
		21. legacy	(n.) money or property that you receive from someone after they die (n.) something that is a part of your history or that remains from an earlier time An elderly cousin had left her a small _____. The Greeks have a rich _____ of literature.

22. outlying	(adj.) far away from main towns and cities, or far from the center of a place Many of the students travel in by bus from _____ areas.
23. outweigh	(v.) to be greater or more important than something else The benefits of this treatment far _____ any risks. Annual weather variations still seem to be _____ing any global warming trends.
24. overhaul	(v.) to repair or improve something so that every part of it works as it should (n.) the act of repairing or improving something so that every part of it works as it should The government has recently _____ed the healthcare system. The firm's organizational infrastructure needed a major _____.
25. projected	(adj.) planned for the future or calculated based on information already known The _____ extension to the motorway is going to cost over £4 million.
26. property line	(n.) the boundary line between two pieces of property A unit of real estate or immovable property is limited by a legal boundary (sometimes also referred to as a _____ or a lot line).
27. reexamine	(v.) to look at something in detail again The company's problems have caused it to _____ its strategy.
28. set aside	If you put/____ money, you save it for a particular purpose. Every week I _____ some money for a new TV.
29. take pride in	to feel very pleased about something or someone you are closely connected with If you don't _____ professional _____ your work, you're probably in the wrong job.
30. tear	(v.) to pull or be pulled apart, or to pull pieces off You have to be very careful with books this old because the paper _____s very easily.
31. wipe off	to remove something from something All their customer information was _____ed _____ the computer by a virus. $8 billion has been _____ed _____ share prices worldwide.