

1. advisory	(adj.) giving advice (n.) an official announcement that contains advice, information, or a warning She is employed by the president in an _____ capacity. Television companies sometimes broadcast _____s before violent movies.	9. exemplify	(v.) to be or give a typical example of something This painting perfectly _____s the naturalistic style which was so popular at the time. American fashion is _____ed by jeans and T-shirts.
2. allegedly	(adv.) used when something illegal or wrong is said to have been done, but has not been proved (adv.) used when something is said to be true but has not been proved That's where he _____ killed his wife. The executive was fired for _____ lying to investors.	10. exert pressure on	to use something such as authority, power, influence, etc. in order to make something happen Some managers _____ considerable _____ their staff to work extra hours without being paid.
3. bump into	to meet someone you know when you have not planned to meet them We _____ed _____ Amy when we were in town last week.	11. hinder	(v.) to limit the ability of someone to do something, or to limit the development of something High winds have _____ed firefighters in their efforts to put out the blaze. Her progress certainly hasn't been _____ed by her lack of experience.
4. celebratory	(adj.) celebrating an important event or a special occasion When we heard she'd got the job, we all went off for a _____ drink.	12. incline	(v.) to (cause to) slope at a particular angle (n.) a slope The ground _____ed steeply towards the ridge in the distance. a steep/gentle _____
5. clout	(n.) power and influence over other people or events (v.) the act of hitting someone or something with your hand or with a heavy object The Queen may have privilege but she has no real political _____. If the photocopier stops working, just give it a _____.	13. indefinitely	(adv.) for a period of time with no fixed end; forever; endlessly The negotiations have been put off/postponed _____.
6. contingent upon	depending on something else in the future in order to happen Outdoor activities are, as ever, _____ the weather. Our success is _____ your support	14. inhabitant	(n.) one living permanently in a given place a city of five million _____s Many of the immigrants have intermarried with the island's original _____s.
7. correlation	(n.) a connection or relationship between two or more facts, numbers, etc. There's a _____ between smoking and cancer. There is a proven correlation between _____ level and income.	15. instinctive	(adj.) Instinctive behavior or reactions are not thought about, planned, or developed by training My _____ reaction was to walk away to avoid an argument
8. disguise	(v.) to give a new appearance to a person or thing, especially in order to hide its true form (v.) to hide an opinion, a feeling, etc.: Minor skin imperfections can usually be _____ed with a spot of make-up. I couldn't _____ my disappointment	16. interfere with	to prevent something from working effectively or from developing successfully Even a low level of noise _____s _____ my concentration.
		17. intermittently	(adv.) in a way that does not happen regularly or continuously; in a way that stops and starts repeatedly or with periods in between We've discussed this problem _____, but so far we've failed to come up with a solution. Lightning flashed _____ in an otherwise clear sky.

18. landfill	(n.) the process of getting rid of large amounts of rubbish by burying it, or a place where rubbish is buried The idea is to transform the _____ into a park.
19. latent	(adj.) present, but not yet active, developed, or obvious; hidden _____ ethnic tensions exploded into the open yesterday. _____ capability/talent/skill
20. look out	to watch what is happening and be careful The police have warned shopkeepers to _____ for forged notes.
21. lucid	(adj.) clearly expressed and easy to understand, or (of a person) thinking or speaking clearly (adj.) (of speech or writing) clearly expressed and easy to understand, or (of a person) thinking or reasoning clearly She gave a clear and _____ account of her plans for the company's future. The author's prose is _____ and entertaining.
22. makeshift	(adj.) temporary and of low quality, but used because of a sudden need Thousands of refugees are living in _____ camps. We pulled into a _____ parking area.
23. momentarily	(adv.) for a very short time (adv.) very soon She was _____ confused by the foreign road signs. I'll be ready to leave _____.
24. narrative	(n.) a story or a description of a series of events (n.) a particular way of explaining or understanding events It's a moving _____ of wartime adventure. Both sides in the conflict have a _____ of victimhood.
25. outreach	(n.) an effort to bring services or information to people where they live or spend time The center was awarded a grant for _____ to the homeless.
26. overstaffed	(adj.) having more employees than are needed The department has been accused of being inefficient and hugely _____.
27. rashly	(adv.) in a careless or unwise way, without thought for what might happen or result They were afraid he might act _____ and hurt somebody. They never make decisions _____.

28. renown	(n.) the state of being famous Her _____ spread across the country.
29. retreat	(v.) to go away from a place or person in order to escape from fighting or danger (v.) to go to a quiet safe place in order to avoid a difficult situation Attacks by enemy aircraft forced the tanks to _____ (from the city). When he's done something wrong, he _____s to his bedroom.
30. rule out	to decide or say officially that something is impossible or will not happen, or that something or someone is not suitable The police have not _____ed him _____ as a suspect I won't _____ a June election.
31. scholar	(n.) a person who studies a subject in great detail, especially at a university Dr Miles was a distinguished _____ of Russian history.
32. sensible	(adj.) based on or acting on good judgment and practical ideas or understanding (adj.) _____ clothes or shoes are practical and suitable for the purpose they are needed for, rather than being attractive or fashionable I think the _____ thing to do is call and ask for directions. It would be _____ to take an umbrella. It could be cold and wet so pack some _____ clothes.
33. squeaky	(adj.) making a very high sound The door swung open on its _____ hinges.
34. succession	(n.) a number of similar events or people that happen, exist, etc. after each other (n.) a process in which someone automatically takes an official position or job after someone else A _____ of scandals and revelations has undermined the government over the past year. Who comes after the vice-president in the presidential line of _____?
35. succumb to	to lose the determination to oppose something; to accept defeat to die or suffer badly from an illness I'm afraid I _____ed _____ temptation and had a piece of cheesecake. Thousands of cows have _____ed _____ the disease in the past few months.
36. take a turn for the better	(of things or people) to become better Her health has _____ - _____ - _____ - _____.