

1. apparatus	(n.) a set of equipment or tools or a machine that is used for a particular purpose The divers checked their breathing _____.	12. electronics	(n.) the scientific study of electric current and the technology that uses it In the _____ industry, for instance, 5000 jobs are being lost
2. be carried out	to do or complete something, especially that you have said you would do or that you have been told to do According to witnesses, the robbery _____ by two teenage boys.	13. evolve	(v.) to develop gradually, or to cause something or someone to develop gradually (v.) to change or develop gradually Did humans _____ from apes? These countries are _____ing toward more democratic societies.
3. be geared to	to make something ready or suitable for a particular purpose Our program _____ the needs of children.	14. exploration	(n.) the activity of searching and finding out about something: The _____ (= search) for new sources of energy is vital for the future of our planet
4. bewildering	(adj.) confusing and difficult to understand: He gave me directions to his house, but I found them utterly _____.	15. implant	(v.) to put an organ, group of cells, or device into the body in a medical operation (v.) to fix ideas, feelings, or opinions in someone else's mind The owner's name and address is stored on a microchip and _____ed in the dog's body. He _____ed some very strange attitudes in his children.
5. bring out	to produce something to sell to the public They keep _____ing _____ smaller phones.	16. intently	(adv.) in a way that gives all your attention to something: She was listening _____ to everything he said.
6. complementary	(adj.) useful or attractive together My family and my job both play an important part in my life, fulfilling separate but _____ needs.	17. limited edition	(n.) products that have a slightly different style to the usual kind and only a small quantity of which are produced The book is a _____.
7. composition	(n.) the parts, substances, etc. that something is made of (n.) a piece of music that someone has written the _____ of the atmosphere This concerto is one of her earlier/later _____s.	18. ornamental	(adj.) of, relating to, or serving as ornament; specifically (n.) a decorative object The architectural unity of the state buildings was further emphasized by materials, colors and _____ elements.
8. concurrently	(adv) simultaneously; happening or existing at the same time The judge imposed _____ sentences totaling 14 years for the attacks on the girls.	19. remnant	(n.) a small piece or amount of something that is left from a larger original piece or amount the _____s of last night's meal _____s of the city's former glory
9. configuration	(n.) the particular arrangement or pattern of a group of related things We tried the furniture in different _____s to see which fit best	20. specimen	(n.) something shown or examined as an example; a typical example (n.) a small amount of blood or urine used for testing He has a collection of rare insect _____s. They took blood and urine _____s for analysis.
10. distill	(v.) to make a liquid stronger or purer by heating it until it changes to a gas and then cooling it so that it changes back into a liquid (v.) to get or show only the most important part of something Some strong alcoholic drinks such as whisky are made by _____ing. Over 80 hours of footage have been _____ed into these 40 minutes.	21. staple	(n.) a main product or part of something (adj.) basic or main; standard or regular Shortages mean that even _____s (= basic foods) like bread are difficult to find. The _____ diet here is mutton, fish and boiled potatoes.
11. dysfunction	(n.) a problem or fault in a part of the body or a machine There appears to be a _____ in the patient's respiratory system.

22. steer	(v.) to control the direction of a vehicle (v.) to take someone or something or make someone or something go in the direction in which you want him, her, or it She carefully ___ed the car around the potholes. She ___ed her guests into the dining room.
23. sturdily	(adv.) in a way that is physically strong and solid or thick, and therefore unlikely to break or be hurt (adv.) in a way that is strong and determined: We could see the boat was _____ built/constructed. He took his place on the witness stand _____.
24. transparent	(adj.) If a substance or object is _____, you can see through it very clearly Her blouse was practically _____.!
25. trial period	(n.) a test, usually over a limited period of time, to discover how effective or suitable something or someone is They've employed her for a six-month _____.
26. vulnerable to	able to be easily physically, emotionally, or mentally hurt, influenced, or attacked Tourists are more _____ _ attack, because they do not know which areas of the city to avoid.